CREO – LAB

An initiative of the
CREO Project

WHAT IS CREO?

Not just theory. Ideas, people and skills to put into action.

CREO is the University of Bergamo's entrepreneurial education project designed to foster an entrepreneurial mindset, unleash creativity and spur innovation.

A participatory and interdisciplinary experience where students from different academic backgrounds work together on today's major socio-economic challenges, learning how to turn needs and problems into original ideas and solutions.

The goal? To develop enterprising competences, learn how to identify opportunities and acquire a method that can support future professional and personal choices.

ASSESS A NEED AND FIND A SOLUTION

CREO-LAB teaches you how to turn a need into a project that generates an original, relevant and feasible idea.

CREO-LAB is all about learning by doing.

The programme guides students from exploring entrepreneurship in a specific field to developing business models that create value and are potentially scalable, ultimately leading to the creation of a final project work.

Students work in multidisciplinary teams, starting from the analysis and validation of a need and developing an innovative idea designed to address a real need and challenge.

CREO-LAB helps you develop:

- Problem solving
- Teamwork
- Creativity
- Project development
- The ability to communicate and develop an idea
